OCAD University Statement of Support for Open Access

Preamble

Open access makes scholarly material available electronically for free, online, and free of most copyright and licensing restrictions. Compatible with peer review, academic freedom, and copyright, open access removes barriers to scholarship while supporting the goals and values of OCAD University.

In recognition of the complexity and diversity of creative production and the unique outputs that constitute research and scholarly publishing in the art and design fields, the University will provide guidance and support negotiating the open access domain.

Intellectual property rights, responsibilities, academic freedoms, and labour agreements will be respected.

Statement of Support

OCAD University recognizes that open access is consistent with its commitment to accessibility, transformative education, scholarship, research, and innovation. OCAD University encourages all OCAD U authors and creators to deposit their research outputs into OCAD University's Open Research repository for preservation and dissemination.
