

Thomas G. Fairbairn
89 Swasez Avenue
Toronto, ON M5T 2ZM
tfairbairn@myway.com . . . <http://tgsutopia.blogspot.com/>

Job Objective

Young, enthusiastic creative looking to lend his energy, talent, and illustration expertise to a team devoted to excellence in the children's book publishing industry.

Highlights of Qualifications

- First-year final team project to design and illustrate a children's book about how different stones acquired their texture and personalities won the first-year project award which consisted of a medallion and $500 See:
<http://www.trafford.com/Bookstore/BookDetail.aspx?Book=165327>
- Advanced computer literacy in Illustrator and Photo Shop
- Fluent – spoken and written – in English and Korean

Professional Accomplishments

- Editor for the high school convocation year book
- Won First Prize for 2009 Southern Ontario Spelling Competition sponsored by Young Scholars of Canada organization - <http://www.scholarscanada.com/> -
- Volunteer teacher – English and Math – at United Christian Academy (three years)

Work History

2008 – present	United Christian Academy Teacher/tutor
2010 – present	Nickel and Dime Department Store Shipper-receiver clerk <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Commended for my efforts in organizing inventory into new categories and price ranges
2010 – present	OCAD University Volunteer Mentor

Education

2010	Graduated – Honours – West Hill Secondary School (Science & Math Stream)
Current	Going into second year – Illustration – OCAD University