A minor is a sequence of courses comprising no fewer than 3.0 full credits and up to 5.0 full credits in a single field of study (disciplinary minor) or in a thematically based cross-departmental or cross-Faculty area of study (interdisciplinary minor).

No 100-level courses may be used toward a minor; no less than 1.0 full credit of the minor must be at the 300 or 400 level.

Up to 2.0 credits of Faculty of Art electives or 1.5 credits of Faculty of Design expansion studios and 3.0 credits of Faculty of Liberal Studies distribution credits may be used toward a minor.

Students with a declared minor may increase their maximum number of credit attempts from 25 to 30.

Students are responsible for ensuring they meet all the requirements for a declared minor as published in their program guide. Failure to complete a declared minor does not carry any academic penalty; however only completed minors will be recorded on the student's transcript.
